ORDER

This matter is before the court on the joint motion for an extension of time by defendants Steven Jones (Jones) and Carneiscya Williams (Williams) (Filing No. 36). Defendants seek until November 29, 2011, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Defendants' counsel represent that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

The motion of defendants Jones and Williams for an extension of time (Filing No. 36) is granted. Defendants are given until on or before November 29, 2011, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between November 16, 2011, and November 29, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 16th day of November, 2011.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
